Doing V-Day at Home This Year? Recreate 17 Romantic Cocktails From Around the World

FEBRUARY 5, 2021 – 2:52 PM – 0 COMMENTS

A day dedicated to all things love obviously calls for the most romantic of libations. Over-the-top Valentine's Day cocktails have become a total thing over the last few years, right up there with decadent dinner recipes for two and shareable desserts that would make Lady and the Tramp jealous.

From aphrodisiac martinis and fizzy tipples, to beverages garnished with rose petals—these are the boozy drinks you need on February 14th, whether your status is single, taken or complicated.

La Susana Spritz From Vik Retreats in Jose Ignacio, Uruguay

Located in Jose Ignacio, Uruguay, Vik Retreats' La Susana is one of the best beach clubs in the world and even though it may be winter in the states, it's summer in South America. Until you can jet off to warmer climates with bae, channel beach vibes with their bespoke cocktails, like the La Susana Spritz—a Uruguayan take on the Aperol spritz.

Ingredients:

- 3 oz Aperol
- 1/4 oz sparkling wine
- 1/4 grapefruit
- 1 Tbsp sugar
- 1 slice of fresh cucumber

Directions:

1. Put the grapefruit and sugar in a shaker and crush with a mortar until it becomes a "syrup".
2. Fill the shaker with ice and add the Aperol.
3. Shake strongly and strain into a large wine glass filled with ice.
4. Add the sparkling wine and finish it with the cucumber slice.
